LACAMAS COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION DONATES $2,500 TO SHARE OF VANCOUVER TO BENEFIT HOMELESS FAMILIES

CAMAS, Washington – May 8, 2008— Lacamas Community Credit Union (LCCU) presented a donation of $2,500 to Share of Vancouver to benefit the Orchards Inn homeless shelter.

The shelter provides housing and meals to families, along with access to employment resources, health care, transportation and counseling. It can accommodate 12 families and 4 single women for stays of up to 60 days.

“Having built our newest branch in the Sifton/Orchards area, LCCU looked for a stewardship opportunity in these specific neighborhoods. Share provides a great service to the people in our community, and it is gratifying to know that our donation will really help people,” said Kathleen Romane, President/CEO.

LCCU’s Sifton Branch is located at 15705 NE Fourth Plain Boulevard in Vancouver.

Lacamas Community Credit Union was the first credit union in Clark County, Washington, chartered in 1936. Membership is open to anyone who lives or works in Clark or Skamania County. A full-service financial institution, LCCU serves its members through five convenient branch locations.
